

Report of the EDRN Consulting Team (NCT) to the NCI Board of Scientific Advisors

Larry Norton, MD
Memorial Sloan Kettering
Cancer Center

June 23, 2014

Standards

Cancer = Molecules

Collaboration = Groups

Network Consulting Team

Recommendations

Oversight

This presentation focuses on four aspects of the NCT

Who We Are

Strengths of the EDRN

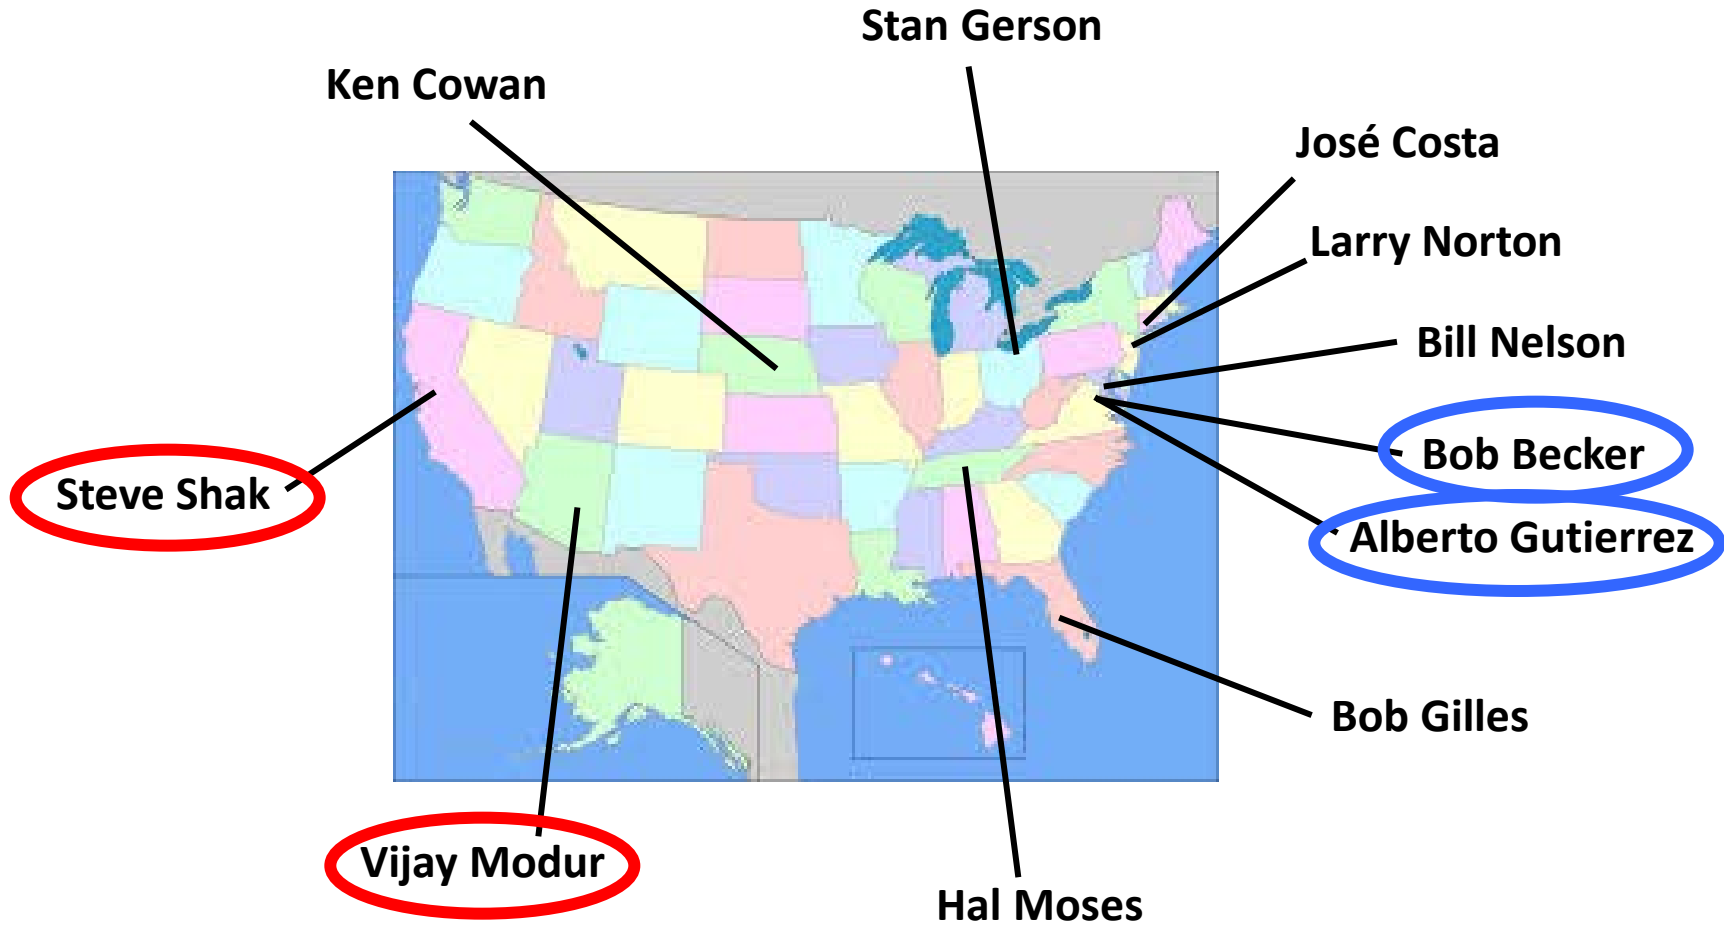

Why EDRN?

NCT Recommendations

The Network Consulting Group is diverse in geography and affiliation

The Network Consulting Team process is formal and thorough

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

Discovery

Reference Standards

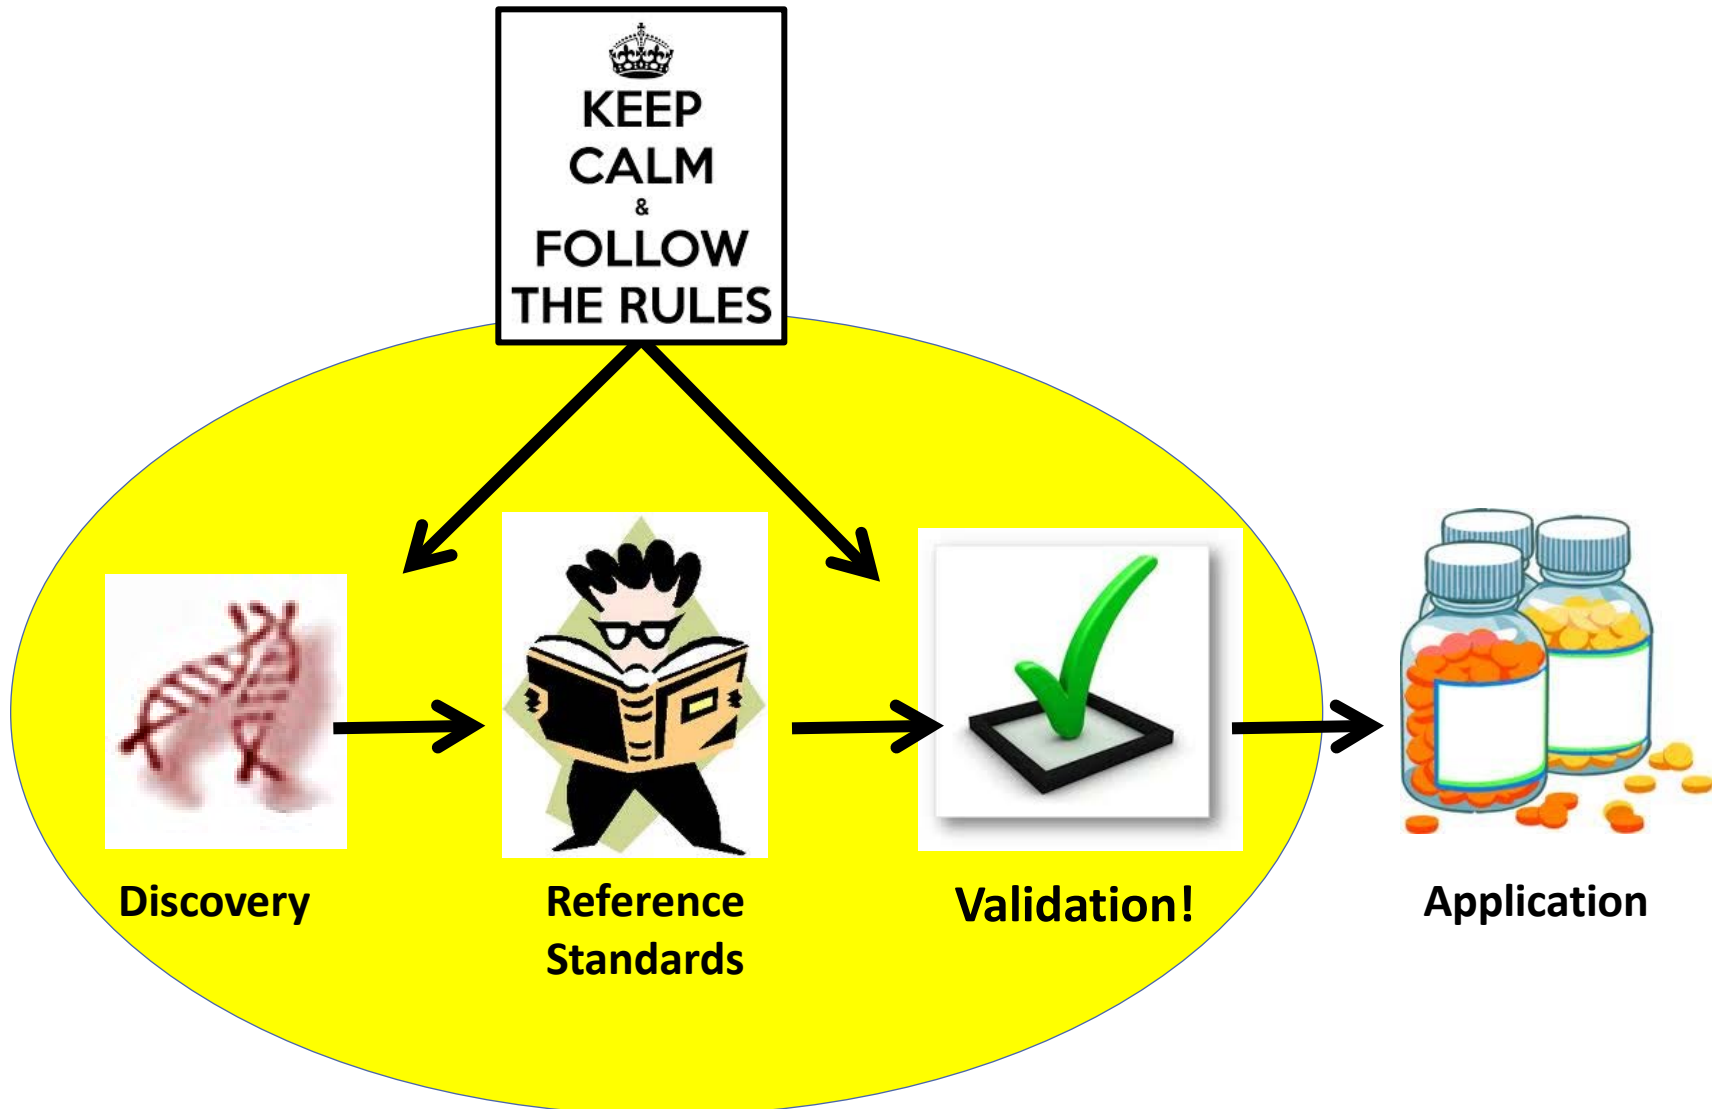

Validation!

Application

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

JPL
Jet Propulsion Laboratory

Discovery

Reference
Standards

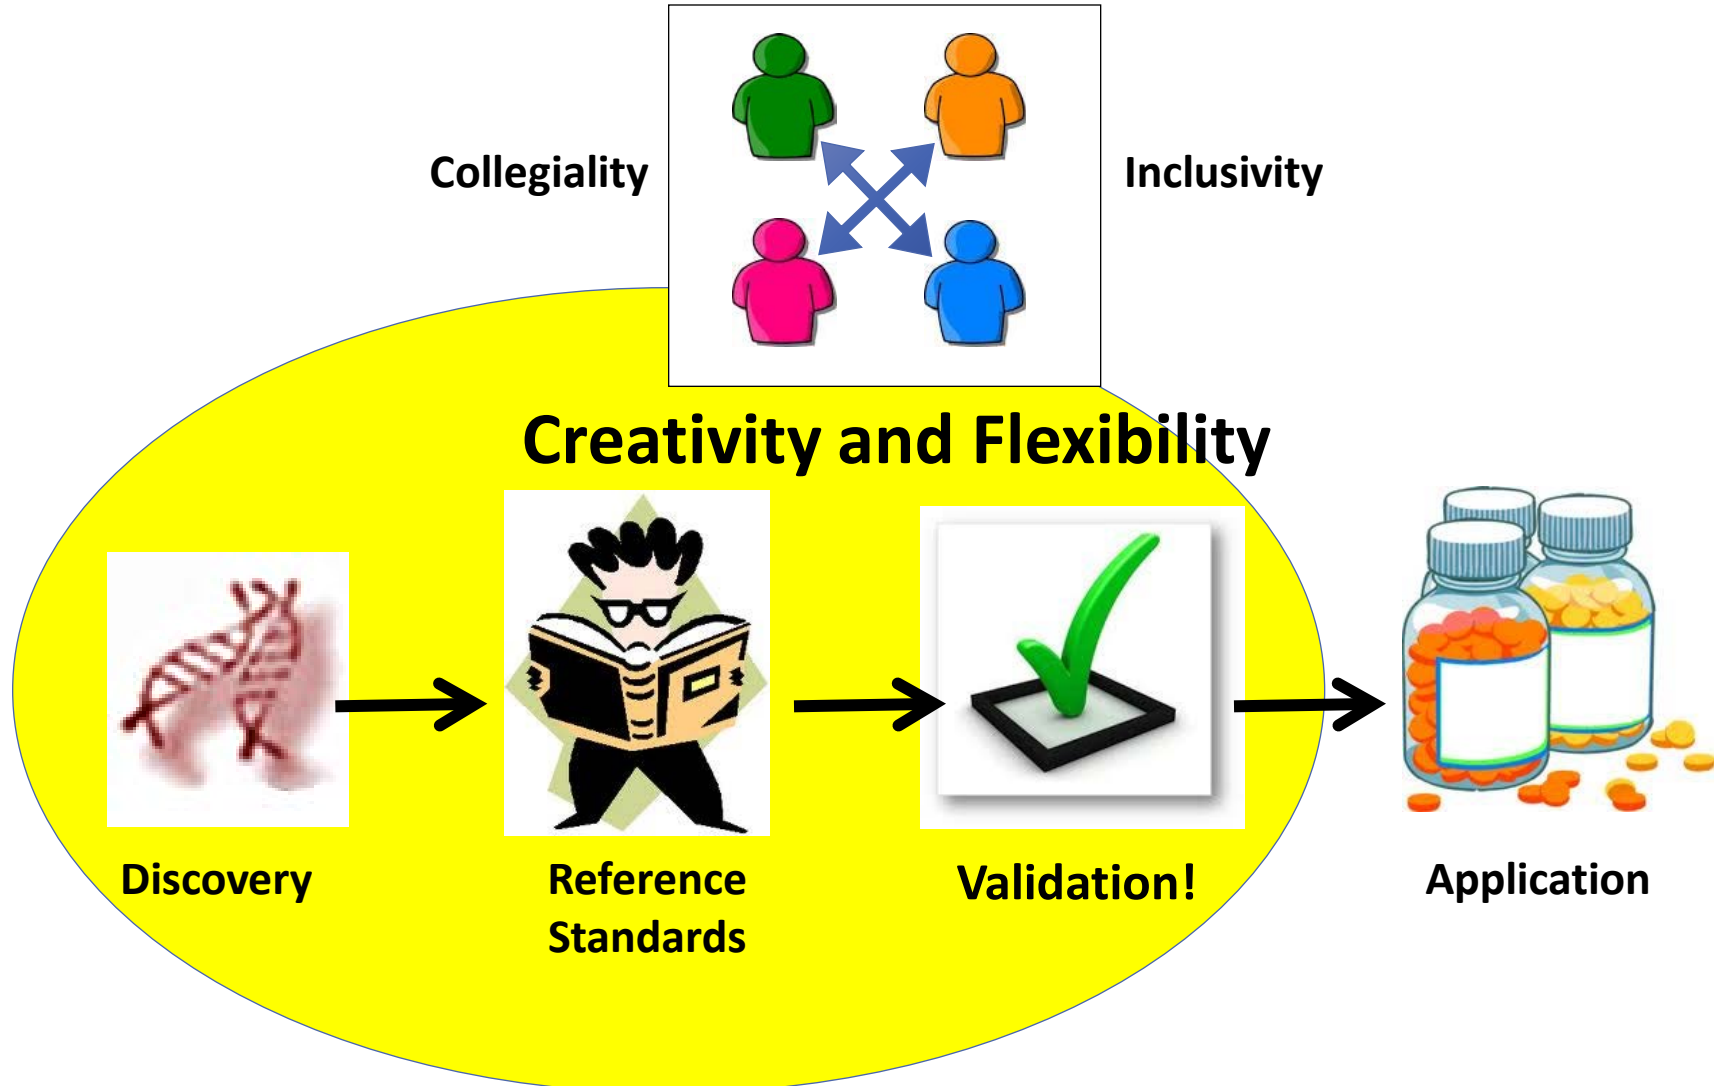

Validation!

Application

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

Creativity and Flexibility

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

Creativity and Flexibility

The Network Consulting Group has consistently found major strengths in the EDRN

Creativity and Flexibility

Current Recommendations of the EDRN Consulting Group:

1. Integration of governmental agencies

Current Recommendations of the EDRN Consulting Group:

2. Increased attention to imaging

Collegiality

Inclusivity

Current Recommendations of the EDRN Consulting Group:

3. Furthered cooperation between organ site experts

Collegiality

Inclusivity

Conclusion: The Network Consulting Team finds that the EDRN is providing unique and vital services

Thank You!

