Outlook

Appropriations Status – FY 2011

Where are we?

- Government is operating under a Continuing Resolution (CR) that expires March 4
- House proposed a 2-week CR that includes $4 billion in spending cuts
- After House passage, will need action by Senate and President to keep government running

How did we get here?

- 111th Congress did not pass a budget resolution or any appropriations bills

Appropriations Status – FY 2011

What's next?

- Most likely, a full year CR will be passed
- FY 2011 Funding level must be agreed upon
  - Flat funding
  - FY 2008 level – 5.3% cut
  - or worse?

“The Committee will find savings in virtually every area of the federal government”

Appropriations Status – FY 2012

President's Budget announced Feb. 14

➤ NIH - $31.0 Billion; NCI - $5.1 Billion

“To win the future, we have to out-innovate, out-educate and out-build the rest of the world, tapping the creativity and imagination of our people. We have to take responsibility for our deficit, by investing in what makes America stronger and cutting what doesn't.” President Obama

“...the President's budget appears to be long on rhetoric and lean on spending cuts. We must go much further than this anemic effort of symbolic reductions and additional spending proposed under the guise of funding 'freezes' if we are truly to get our nation's finances on a sustainable course.” Rep. Hal Rogers

Concern for Biomedical Research

Several members have made public statements to suggest that exceptions to budget cuts can and should be made for biomedical research and/or the NIH budget

On the record already...

Brian Higgins (D-NY)

Chris Van Hollen (D-MD)

Rob Andrews (D-NJ)

Dave Dreier (R-CA) (Chair of Rules Committee)

Closing on a Hopeful Note

“Few issues are more unifying than the fight to cure cancer. As we choose our national priorities carefully, medical research, which holds the dual promise of economic and scientific growth, should be a focal point in America’s rise to the top.”
