What does Corker’s retirement mean?
- More money will be spent on primaries that test the populist/mainstream Republican divide.
- Without a threat of re-election Corker might be more willing to vote on principle, hurting Republican’s chances at passing deficit-increasing tax cuts.

NB: Corker and Strange refer to their seats rather than the candidates who announced retirement and lost a special election primary challenge, respectively.

If Democrats retain all their seats in 2018, they must pick up all “toss-ups” as well as 5 “lean-Republicans”

Right to Try Legislation

- To allow patients with a “terminal illness” (H.R. 878) or “life-threatening disease or condition” (S. 204) to request access from drug manufacturers to experimental treatments not yet approved by FDA (no requirement to use FDA’s compassionate use program).

- Passed the Senate in August 2017. House Energy & Commerce working with FDA.

- President and VP support the legislation. President Trump mentioned in 2018 State of the Union: “Patients with terminal conditions, terminal illness, should have access to experimental treatment immediately that could potentially save their lives.”

• Cr #3 Dec 21 - Jan 19

Five Continuing Resolutions? Par for the Course on Capitol Hill

Fiscal 2018 isn’t an outlier, yet, when compared to recent years

• Congress has averaged roughly 5.5 CRs per year going back to FY1998

• 21 CRs in fiscal year (2001) — although each one averaged only about four days.

• Since 2006, Congress has used temporary spending measures to fund all or part of government for more than 174 days on four occasions, including three full-year stopgaps.

• The last time no CR was needed was FY1996 – all spending bills enacted individually.
• Two shutdowns in FY18 – 3 days and 8 hours (shortest shutdown in history)

What’s Next?

Finalize an FY18 Omnibus Spending bill

New nondefense spending areas (e.g., opioids, infrastructure) complicating job for appropriators – budget deal described the range of uses for the $20 billion but didn't spell out in any detail how it would be divided up or through which programs it would be channeled

Takes time to consolidate 12 spending bills – new budget caps and new priorities will cause further delay

FY19 Budget Hearings -

OMB Director and Treasury Secretary testify this week at the House Budget Committee and Senate Finance Committee

HHS Secretary to testify at House Energy and Commerce Committee, Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committee
“As outlined in the Constitution, the Congress, not the Executive Branch, has the ‘power of the purse.’ My Committee takes this responsibility very seriously.

It is our job to analyze the request, go through each and every budget line, question every witness, and demand spending justifications on behalf of the taxpayers who are footing the bill.

Only then can Congress put forward our own plan to fund the federal government.”
