Ad Hoc Working Group on Global Health

The National Cancer Advisory Board (NCAB) ad hoc Subcommittee on Global Cancer Research will convene a Working Group to provide general guidance to the NCI regarding strategic opportunities to enhance NCI's contributions to global cancer research. The Working Group is charged with advising on the vision, accomplishments, and operations of the NCI's Center for Global Health (CGH). This will include focusing on the mission, prioritization process, goals, and scientific activities of the CGH.

Working Group membership will include select NCAB members, as well as individuals with expertise in conducting basic, clinical and epidemiological research in low and middle-income countries.

The Working Group will advise the NCAB ad hoc Subcommittee on Global Cancer Research, National Cancer Advisory Board, and the NCI Director.
